

CITY OF CLEVELAND

Mayor Frank G. Jackson

From: Office of the Mayor

Daniel Williams, Director of Media Relations
Office of the Mayor
(216) 664-4011

Daniel Ball, Assistant Director of Media Relations
Office of the Mayor
(216) 664-3691

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 23, 2016

News Advisory

City of Cleveland to Challenge State Law in Court

CLEVELAND – Today, Mayor Frank G. Jackson and other officials will discuss a city-led challenge to the recently enacted Ohio Revised Code Section 9.49 that prohibits Ohio cities from imposing hiring requirements on contractors for public improvement construction projects.

- WHO: Mayor Frank G. Jackson
Councilwoman Phyllis Cleveland (Ward 5)
Chief of Public Affairs, Natoya J. Walker Minor
Chief Counsel, Gary Singletary
Director of the Office of Equal Employment, Melissa K. Burrows
Cleveland Building and Construction Trades Executive Secretary/Business Manager, David J. Wondolowski
Chairwoman of the Cleveland Residential Advisory Committee and President of the Board of HHW Ohio, Terri Burgess Sandu
CEO Construction Employers Association, Tim Linville
Construction Employers Association, Glen Shumate
- WHAT: City of Cleveland to announce and discuss challenge to state law in Cuyahoga County Court of Common Pleas.
- WHEN: Tuesday, August 23, 2016
10:30 a.m.
- WHERE: Mayor's Red Room, Cleveland City Hall
601 Lakeside Avenue
Cleveland, OH 44114

View the filing here:

<https://www.dropbox.com/sh/dwvbmsdeqduigmi/AAAPFAF5dfjezKTTVz7OctYVa?dl=0>

###