9:00AM	BLACK HISTORY MONTH OPENING CEREMONY CHOIR	The CMSD Cleveland School of the Arts Choir performed at the City of Cleveland's Black History Month Opening Ceremony on February 1, 2024, in the City Hall Rotunda. Director of Community Relations Angela Shute-Woodson and Cleveland City Council President Blaine Griffin welcomed the choir and attendees.
9:30AM	BLACK HISTORY MONTH: SELMA ALABAMA	In early 1965, Selma, Alabama, became the site of a civil rights campaign to enable black voters to register. On Sunday, March seven, 600 people set out for the state capitol in Montgomery, 50 miles away, hoping to gain national attention. This docudrama is based on real events that occurred during the Historic Selma to Montgomery March in 1965.

10:00AM	TV20 News	See 6am
10:30AM	BLACK HISTORY MONTH PLAY: THE FOUR ANGELS OF 16TH STREET	Written and directed by Cornell Hubert Calhoun III. On Sunday, September the 15th, 1963, at the 16th Street Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama. Four little black girls, Addie May Collins, Denise McNair, Carroll Robertson and 11-year-old Cynthia Wesley were killed when a bomb exploded underneath the church steps. The national public anger and revulsion at the slaughter of four innocent children by the Ku Klux Klan at a place of worship helped fuel support for the civil rights legislation.
11:00AM	BLACK HISTORY MONTH PLAY: TELLING OUR STORY	Hosted by Zelma George Community Center. Seniors perform a play called "Telling Our Stories". Honoring famous African Americans and residents in the Cleveland Neighborhoods.
