City of Cleveland Provides General Updates on Coronavirus & Safety - Update #142

CLEVELAND – The City of Cleveland continues to take numerous precautions across multiple departments and divisions amid increasing cases of coronavirus (COVID-19). Below are some important updates. Mayor Frank G. Jackson signed an order on June 24, extending the City's Proclamation of Civil Emergency through July 31, 2020. The order was amended to include a mask mandate on July 3. Click here to view the order.

Essential services such as Police, Fire, EMS, waste collection and Utilities will remain operational.

44 New Confirmed Coronavirus Cases Reported in Cleveland

The Cleveland Department of Public Health (CDPH) has been notified of 44 more confirmed cases coronavirus in city residents and no new fatalities. This brings the total to 3,743 confirmed cases in the City of Cleveland and 83 fatalities. The new confirmed cases include males and females whose ages range from their teens to their 70s. An additional probable case was also identified bringing the total probable cases to 536. CDPH is working to identify their close contacts who would require testing or monitoring for COVID-19 symptoms. One previously reported case was transferred as it was determined the individual was not a Cleveland resident.

As of today, there are 72,963 confirmed cases and 2,959 fatalities in the State of Ohio. There are more than 3.85 million confirmed cases and 141,426 deaths in the U.S.

The City of Cleveland COVID-19 Dashboard displays the most recent preliminary data from the Ohio Department of Health about COVID-19 cases, hospitalizations, deaths and recoveries in Cleveland by selected demographics. View the dashboard here. For individuals' privacy, CDPH will not be releasing any additional demographic info related to COVID-19 cases aside from age range and gender.

Mayor Frank G. Jackson Swears in Chief Assistant Prosecutor

Mayor Frank G. Jackson today swore in Aqueelah A. Jordan as Chief Assistant Prosecutor. Jordan previously served as an Assistant Cuyahoga County Prosecutor. In that position, Jordan worked in the Juvenile Division, General Felony Unit and was promoted to the Major Trial Unit in 2016. Prior to that position, she was a member of the City of Cleveland Prosecutor's Office, and came into it after serving as the Cleveland Municipal Court Interim Mediation Coordinator. Click here to download her headshot and biography. View the swearing in video.

During her time earning her Juris Doctorate at Cleveland Marshall College of Law, she served as a law clerk in the Cleveland Municipal Court. Jordan also received her Master's Degree in Public Administration from Cleveland State University, and her undergraduate degree from Case Western Reserve University.

Jordan has received awards from the Cuyahoga County Prosecutor's office for her community engagement and victim advocacy. She is very active with the National Black Prosecutor's Association and chaired the 2017 National Convention in Cleveland.

Officer-Related Complaints: May 30, 2020 Civil Unrest

The Cleveland Division of Police Internal Affairs Unit and the Office of Professional Standards are currently investigating a complaint of excessive use of force against a Cleveland Police Officer during the May 30, 2020 civil unrest events in downtown Cleveland. The City continues to investigate complaints against officers and will accept information, photos or video regarding those complaints at <https://ClevelandOHPD.evidence.com/axon/citizen/public/2020protest>. In addition, citizens may file complaints directly with the Office of Professional Standards in person, by mail, email or facsimile. More information on this process can be found by clicking here.

Calls Regarding COVID-19 Complaints

With the passage yesterday by Cleveland City Council of an ordinance authorizing penalties for non-compliance with Mayor Jackson's mask mandate, enforcement is now in effect.

There are two numbers Clevelanders should call regarding non-compliance:

- Business complaints: CDPH hotline at 216-857-7165
- Individual or private residence complaints: Cleveland Police non-emergency line at 216-621-1234

Cleveland City Council recently approved the mandatory use of masks in public spaces as well as certain penalties for individuals and businesses that do not comply. On July 3, Mayor Jackson signed an amended order mandating the use of masks in public in the City of Cleveland to slow the spread of the highly contagious coronavirus. This includes mandatory use in bars, restaurants, shared office settings, rideshares and other shared spaces.

Citations may be issued with fines for the following:

- Any business or person violating the mask or safe-seating order (which maintains social distancing of at least six feet between patrons) is subject to civil penalties. In accordance with Ordinance No. 556-2020, specifically chapters 602 and 236.
- Any business in the City of Cleveland with an employee who becomes ill with the coronavirus is required to immediately disinfect and sanitize the premises. Following a warning, they may be subject to a civil penalty of $1,000 for the first offense and a civil penalty of $3,000 for each subsequent violation.

Bulk Pick-Up to Resume Regular Schedule Beginning in August

Beginning in the month of August 2020 bulk pick-up will operate on its regular schedule. Bulk pick-up will be conducted on the first full week of each month on residents' regular collection day. Residents should follow regular bulk pick-up guidelines.

Other Important Reminders

Mayor Jackson Announces Restart CLE

Mayor Jackson has unveiled his strategic plan for the recovery of Cleveland's economy amid the coronavirus pandemic. As the city began this recovery planning process, it engaged experts from Cleveland State University and local medical institutions and made a deliberate choice to build from a health and medical perspective in order to protect those at risk from the coronavirus and then incorporate economic and social support to help the people and businesses who need assistance.
